

Life Group Coach – Job Description

A Life Group coach is responsible for leading, caring for, discipling, and developing 2-4 life group leaders. Coaches should be fluent in all information covered in Following Jesus, Making Disciples 1, Making Disciples 2 and Making Disciples 3 as well as have been a life group leader in the past. Coaches should make their role as coach and relationships with their leaders a priority despite the rigors of normal church involvement.

All Coaches within the Adult and Student Networks are required to do the following:

1. Pray for their leaders weekly.
2. Meet with their leaders at minimum once per month.
3. Connect via phone or video chat with leaders at least one additional time each month.
4. Sit in on each of their leaders' life groups once per semester.
5. Initiate additional follow up as needed.
6. Report vitality of the group to the network leader once per month by filling out the online coaching report.
7. Actively take part in a life group outside your coaching circle.
8. Attend and participate in the monthly face-to-face and/or video trainings.
9. Commit to caring, in a spirit of truth and grace, for the leaders you serve, not just for the success of their ministries. Both during and after their season of leadership.
10. Effectively model the skills and habits you want your leaders to emulate. Including but not limited to; prayer, scripture reading, invitation, service, prophetic prayer, healing prayer, follow up, tithing, and church attendance.
